Northern Uganda - January 2013

INN-TERNATIONAL

Northern Uganda: 17th to 30th January 2013. Peter Marchand with Inn Christian Ministries (Uganda)

The focus of this Ministry Trip was open air evangelism rather than encouraging believers. The first two days were spent preaching hope to communities struggling with HIV/AIDS after the horrors of the insurgencies in northern Uganda and the atrocities wreaked by Joseph Kony and the LRA. We then moved for two days to a large town suburb where prostitution and drunkenness are prevalent. The gospel was clearly and boldly preached with good amplification, and there could be none in the area who did not hear. Many quietly responded to the calls to salvation through faith alone in Jesus Christ, even as they sat at their market stalls. The whole place became the scene of great rejoicing as we concluded. The church reported many new people attending the following Sunday. From there we moved on to Kaberamaido where we were warmly received by the District officials and civic leaders. The mornings were spent teaching pastors and church leaders from far and wide and many different church networks and denominations. "Your teaching was as if you were looking into our hearts," said the Chairman of the Kaberamaido Pastors and Elders Fellowship. The main thrust, however, was the gospel meetings where we saw hundreds respond eagerly to the appeals for salvation. A particular highlight was the huge response from young and old, male and female to "join the mighty army of preachers of the gospel around the world." (see picture above)

The Open Air Crusade at Kaberamaido

A Personal Perspective on an Overseas Ministry Trip by Evelyn Agyemang

Being my first Ministry Trip, I was both excited and nervous. I had heard so many stories about the people and place and it was a great time to finally match names with the people and see these places firsthand. It was an honour to be invited and be alongside Pastor Peter as he ministered to all sorts of people from different backgrounds and to see so many, particularly kids, being saved. It was a wonderful experience, worth all the setbacks.

Relevant Question

What are the typical costs of a Ministry Trip and how are you funded?

Peter replies with Relevant Answer

It varies depending on the nature of the Trip. The most expensive ones are when we hold a full Crusade as we did in January this year in Kaberamaido, northern Uganda. There are always the airfare/s, visa fees, insurance, anti-malarial tablets, overnight food and accommodation in transit, internal travel to the venue, both ways. We fund all the prior mobilisation, over several months, notifying the district officials and civic leaders, the churches, forming a co-ordinating committee, raising intercessors, administrators and praise and worship teams, publicity on radio and through leaflets and posters. Once the whole event starts we feed up to 300 pastors and church leaders for the entire period, accommodate them, as well as our own team (6 members this time). The last trip amounted to £4,860. Inn Christian Ministries has always been a faith ministry. We are supported by individuals and churches, some on a regular basis, others as one-off gifts. We know God speaks to people through 3 John 1.7-8 and stirs them to support. We thank Him.
