Ministry Trip Report: Goiás State, Brazil 25th March -14th April 2015, by Director Peter Marchand.

This was our second ministry trip to Brazil by invitation, building upon relationships formed in 2013. We opened with ministry at the Vineyard Church in Brasilia, followed by an adopted church there. From there we went to take a few days break in a rustic historical town, Pirenopolis, but found I was preaching in two churches there, with a request to return and speak in another church, and a Pastors and Leaders gathering the following week. Great to be wherever, and God blessed marvelously.

Probably the highlight was the climax of a large church's annual Missions Conference in Goiânia, where I spoke on Easter Saturday evening and Easter Sunday morning. It is a numerically large church of over 1000 members, with many church plants in Brazil and other parts of the world. Great honour to be part of that!

The remainder of the trip went well, but inexperience on the part of the organizers meant that attendance at the final weekend Conference was poor. So the programme was rescheduled and we concluded in a large Assemblies of God church in Goiânia—I felt a bit like an intruder, but people came forward for salvation so heaven was rejoicing, even if I was a bit confused! (And they asked me back!). Another good moment was an unscheduled visit to the second largest university in Brazil, Pontifícia Universidade Católica de Goiás, where we met with students (see front page).

There was a strong urgency from each place for me to return this year, but I offered July 2016. We visited churches in three cities and one town. Thanks so much to all who financed and prayed for this trip. You made a good investment.

Relevant Question

Why go to Brazil? Haven't they heard about Christ there?

Peter replies with relevant Answer

Strange question... as, apart from football, probably the best known feature of Brazil is the Christ the Redeemer statue in Rio de Janeiro! Yes, of course they have heard of Christ in Brazil. But believers in Brazil are like believers the world over - they need and want encouragement and teaching, as well as the gospel preached in a different way to what they are accustomed. There is a special spiritual dynamic released when God sends, and a person goes and is received. Firstly, there is always a heightened prayer backing from both countries. Although people are praying all the time, with a Ministry Trip it intensifies. We certainly notice the change when we return!

Secondly, although God is also with us all the time, and Jesus is present when two or more gather in His name, nevertheless He sends someone because that person is carrying something from Him that is not already there - otherwise there would be no need to send someone! Inevitably something special and different will occur. Jesus said, "He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me." (Matthew 10.40) Whether it is across the nations, the denominations or the generations, God still sends people to "complete what is lacking in your faith" (1 Thessalonians 3.10). Always special times!
